Allison and All,

My comments are attached. I started this over the weekend and apologize for not seeing/using Christine and Jayne's markup as a foundation. Many of my comments on the penalties mirror the sentiment behind Christine's edits, but please consider them as amendments to Christine's edits where that makes sense. I have several other edits throughout the document and consider most of them to be important (not editorial) changes. Happy to discuss if needed.

This is an excellent and comprehensive set of Q&As – I couldn't think of any that had been missed.

Thank you,
Lynda
